

The Geological Society of Washington
founded 1893

WEDNESDAY, October 7, 2020
MEETING No 1558

***Meeting to be held virtually via Zoom*****

Note that the meeting will be “locked” 15 min. after the formal program begins and new attendees will only be allowed in between talks.

JEREMY HOFFMAN, Science Museum of Virginia

The enduring legacy of inequitable exposure to urban heat and other tales

SARAH C. PENNISTON-DORLAND, University of Maryland

Applying crystal clocks to metamorphic processes: Using Li isotopes in garnet to constrain the duration of fluid flow during subduction metamorphism

CAROL FROST, University of Wyoming

Born Strong: the making and breaking of cratons

TALKS WILL BE 20 MINUTES w/ QUESTIONS TO FOLLOW

---

Zoom link active at 7:30 p.m. EDT for socializing
Formal program at 8:00 p.m. EDT

For additional details please visit:
www.gswweb.org